

be by him safely kept and preserved among the records of said court, subject to the dispositions hereinafter provided.

Sec. 8. Whilst discharging the duties imposed by this Article the said officers of registration shall have and exercise the powers of a Justice of the Peace for the preservation of order around the place of registration; may compel the attendance of witnesses for the purpose of ascertaining the qualifications of persons applying to be registered; they shall have power to issue summons, attachments and commitments to any sheriff or constable, who shall serve such process as if issued by a Judge of the Circuit Court or a Justice of the Peace, and shall receive the same fees and in the same manner as allowed by law in State cases; but the officers of registration shall not charge any fee for the issue of such process, or receive any fee or emoluments for this or any other service they may perform in the proper discharge of their duties, except that provided in the first section of this Article.

Sec. 9. For the purpose of correcting the lists of qualified voters after any election, and as subsequent elections from time to time occur, by the addition of names of persons having come of age, acquired legal residence, been naturalized, or applying to be registered, and by striking therefrom the names of such persons as may have removed from the county, or State, or may have died, or become disqualified under the third and fifth sections of the first Article of the Constitution, it shall be the duty of the said clerks to hand over said lists and books to the officers of registration, who shall proceed to correct the same by making the additions and corrections above mentioned so that the names of all persons entitled to vote shall appear thereon; and they shall give notice and hold sessions for this purpose as directed in sections five and six of this Article; and when they shall have completed their work, they shall dispose of said lists and books as prescribed in the preceding sections of this Article.

Sec. 10. If any person who has been registered as a legal voter in one district or precinct shall remove into another, he shall take from the officer of registration, or the clerk of the court in which said lists or books may be deposited, a certificate of the fact of his registration in such district or precinct, and it shall be the duty of the officers of registration to notify each other of such removals and certificates and registration, and unless the provisions of this section are complied with, such person shall not be registered as a legal voter in the district or precinct to which he may remove; and such certificates shall be filed with the lists of votes or book of registration in the office of said clerk.

Sec. 11. In case any county or city shall be divided so as
