The bill being upon a second reading,

Mr. Devecmon proposed the following amendment as a substitute for the amendment previously offered by him :

Strike out all of the first section after the words "majority of" in the 10th line, and insert, "the preferred bondholders, scripholders and judgment creditors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, each one hundred dollars, being and shall be entitled to one vote in any meeting of the said creditors, which may be held for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this bill."

Pending the consideration of which,
