So it appearing that a majority of all the members elected to the House not having voted in the affirmative, the resolutions were rejected.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following:

BY THE SENATE,
ANNAPOLIS, March 22, 1867.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message informing us that you dissent to some of the amendments to the appropriation bills. The Senate have declined to recede from their amendments, and respectfully desire a Committee of Conference. We have appointed Messrs. Vickers, Compton and Tome on the part of the Senate.

By order,
A. GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

Which was read.

Mr. Williams submitted the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
March 22, 1867.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have received your message proposing the appointment of Committee of Conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the general appropriation bills, and concur therein. We have appointed on the part of the House Messrs. Williams, Hammond and Gorsuch.

By order,
WM. R. COLE,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.
