

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
March 22nd, 1867.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

We herewith return the House bill entitled, an Act to pay a sum of money to Wm. Price and Daniel R. Magruder, and respectfully state that we cannot concur in the amendment of the Senate to said bill, and request your Honorable Body to recede therefrom.

By order,

WM. R. COLE,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to and sent to the Senate.

The Committee on Conference of the two Houses upon the Militia bill made the following

REPORT :

The Committee of Conference appointed by the two Houses on the disagreeing votes on the Militia Bill having met and duly considered the same, have agreed to recommend for the adoption of the two Houses as follow, viz :

Strike out all the amendments made by the Senate and adopt the following :

First amendment, sub-section one of section two, strike out all down to the word "proceed" in line six, and insert: "The Governor, as Commander-in-Chief, shall by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint one Inspector-General, at a salary of five thousand dollars per annum who shall, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Governor, as Commander-in-Chief."

Second amendment, strike out all after the word "law," in line sixteen, to end of sub-section.

Third amendment, sub-section eight, section two, strike out in the first line "Inspector-General," and insert "Commander-in-Chief."

Fourth amendment, amend sub-section nine of section two by striking out all after the word "General" in line five, to the word "and" in line seventeen, and insert: "Each of whom shall rank as Major-General, a Judge-Advocate General, a Quartermaster-General, a Surgeon-General, a Surveyor-General and a Commissary-General, each of whom shall be appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold their respective commissions until trial and conviction by court martial.

Fifth amendment, amend by striking out the whole of section 15.

Sixth amendment, amend sub-section twenty-one of section two, line three, by striking out the word "five," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "three."

JAMES T. EARLE,
ISAAC D. JONES,
W. H. NEILSON.

Which was adopted.
