Mr. Stirling submitted the following amendment,

To the 4th section:

Line 41, section 4, after the word "corporation," insert: "the said corporators shall in addition to the contribution to the School Fund hereinbefore provided, pay ten per cent. of the gross receipts to the Treasurer of the State of Maryland to be used for such purposes as the General Assembly may direct;"

Which was read and rejected.

Mr. Stirling submitted the following amendment:

Line 41, section 4, insert after the word "corporation," "the General Assembly shall at all times have the right to appoint a committee to examine the books of said Company, so that an estimate may be made of the profits of said Company, and if said profits shall exceed twenty-five thousand dollars, the said Company shall pay to the Treasurer of the State, twenty per centum of such profits, to be used as said General Assembly may direct:"
