

Assembly, and said committee are now ready to appear, and present said memorial. We respectfully invite your Honorable Body to be present.

By order,

WM. R. COLE,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read

Mr. Vickers submitted the following message :

BY THE SENATE,

February 26, 1867.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message inviting us to unite with the House of Delegates, to receive the committee of five hundred citizens of Baltimore, on the floor of the House to-day, appointed at a public meeting held in Baltimore city, to memorialize the General Assembly on subjects of vital importance to the city and State, and will cordially unite with you in said object, and concur with you in the appointment of a committee of five, to consist of two from the Senate and three from the House of Delegates, to conduct said committee to the Hall of the House at half past 12 o'clock to-day. We have appointed on the part of the Senate, Messrs. Vickers and Earle.

By order,

A. GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the House of Delegates.

The President and Senators then proceeded to the chamber of the House of Delegates.

The Senators at 1 o'clock, P. M., returned to the Senate chamber and resumed the consideration of the Legislative business.

The Senate resumed the reading of the report of the minority of the committee in relation to the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad company;

On motion by Mr. Earle,

The Senate was called;

The Sergeant-at-Arms was sent to inform the absent Senators that their presence was required in the Senate Chamber.

On motion by Mr. Jump,
