

the House on any question, no Member without the Bar shall be counted.

XIII.

Every Member who shall be in the House when the question is put, shall give his vote, unless the House, for special reasons, shall excuse him. And the refusal of any Member present to vote, on calling the yeas and nays, shall be noted on the Journal at the request of any Member.

XIV.

No Member, without the permission of the House, shall answer on the yeas and nays, who did not divide on the question; and if any Member divide on one side and answer on the other on calling the yeas and nays, the same shall be noted on the Journal at the request of any Member.

XV.

No Member shall take out of the House any Bill, or other Paper belonging to the House, without leave of the Speaker; and no original paper shall be delivered to any person during the recess of the Legislature, without a written order from the Speaker.

XVI.

Any Member, on motion, or in debate, may call for the reading of any Law, Journal, Record or other Public Proceedings, which may relate to the subject matter.

XVII.

The name of every Member making a Motion, presenting any Petition, Memorial, or other Paper, proposing any Resolution, Order, or other matter, shall be inserted on the Journal; but if any motion or proposition be withdrawn, all proceedings relating immediately thereto, shall be expunged from the Journal.

XVIII.

Whilst the Speaker is putting any question, or addressing the House, none shall walk out or cross the House; nor in such case, or while a Member is speaking, shall hold private discourse, so as to interrupt debate.

XIX.

When a Motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the Speaker; or being in writing, it shall be handed to the
