ON BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

XXXVII.

Every Bill shall be introduced by motion for leave, by an order of the House, or on the report of a Committee; and in either of the two cases first mentioned, a Committee to prepare the same shall be appointed.

XXXVIII.

Every Bill shall receive three readings in the House, on three different days of the Session, previous to its passage, unless three-fourths of the Members of the House otherwise determine; the first of which readings shall be by the title only, unless a majority of the House shall otherwise order.

XXXIX.

The first reading of a Bill shall be for information, and if opposition be made to it, the Question shall be: "Shall this Bill be considered?" If no opposition be made, or if the Question to consider be decided in the affirmative, the Bill shall go to its second reading without a Question.

XL.

All Bills of a local character and of a partial operation, received from the Senate, shall be referred to a Select Commit-
