

• A message is then returned as follows :

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

January —, 1867.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

We have received your message proposing the appointment of a Joint Committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the bill entitled (insert title,) and respectfully inform you that we concur therein. We have appointed on the part of the House Messrs. ———

The report of the Committee on Conference is then submitted by the Chairman of the Senate Committee to the Senate, and the Chairman of the House Committee to the House, and passed by yeas and nays. The bill then stands as amended by the Committee of Conference.

Should the Committee of Conference not be able to agree, the bill is rejected.
