

BALTIMORE CITY.

OFFICE CLERK OF COURT OF COMMON PLEAS,

BALTIMORE, January 22nd, 1866.

To the Honorable the Members of the House of Delegates :

GENTLEMEN:—In reply to the order passed by your Honorable Body on the 18th instant, calling upon the Clerks of the various Courts of the State to report the number of days of each term of the said Courts, between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of December, 1866, inclusive, the respective Judges of said Courts have held sessions thereof or transacted business therein; I most respectfully report, that the Court of Common Pleas was in session as shown by the record, every day, except holidays, and a vacation of six weeks in July and August, and that said vacation was caused by reason of repairs and improvements made upon the room occupied by the Court; and that the Hon. John C. King has alone, sat upon the bench of said Court during said period.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. D. LOWRY, Clerk of Court of Common Pleas.
