

The First began on the third Monday of January, 1866, and closed on the third Monday of February following.

The Second began on the third Monday of March, 1866, and closed on the third Monday of May following.

The Third began on the third Monday of June, 1866, and closed on the third Monday of September following.

The Fourth began on the third Monday of November, 1866, and closed on the third Monday of December following; and during the continuance of each of said terms, his Honor, Judge Brent, transacted a considerable amount of Equity business at his home in Charles county, when not on the bench here.

Special Judges occupied the bench at intervals during the period named in your order, for the trial of cases submitted to them respectively, according to law.

Respectfully, your ob't serv't,

JNO. A. CAMALIER,

Clerk of the Circuit Court for St. Mary's county, Md.

FREDERICK COUNTY.

CLERK'S OFFICE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR
FREDERICK COUNTY,

January 22d, 1867.

W. R. COLE, Esq.,

Chief Clerk House of Delegates,

ANNAPOLIS, MD.

Dear Sir:—In compliance with the order passed by the House of Delegates on Thursday the 18th inst., and your favor of the same date, which is just received, I have the honor to reply that for equity and other purposes, our Circuit Court is considered in session every day except Sunday's, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving and Christmas, whether his Honor, the Judge, be present or not, at which time business is transacted when necessary, either at the court house or at the judges chamber, and therefore it is impossible to answer
