

the order correctly for that part of the year. At the February and October terms for the trial of Criminal and other causes, we can answer positively, as a diary is kept of the attendance of jurors, bailiff, &c., and by reference to said diary, we find his Honor was present twenty-four days at the February and twenty-four days at the October term, 1866, being the number of days at those terms when there were causes ready for trial.

Hoping the above may be a satisfactory answer,

I have the honor to be

Yours very respectfully,
JOS. W. L. CARTY, Clerk.
