

The Year 1866.

II.

Cash on hand 31st December, 1866 - - - -	$2,063 51
Due the Hospital,—
From Counties, - - - - -	1,591 63
“ Baltimore City, - - - - -	125 00
“From Private Patients, - - - - -	4,433 83
Cash and claims in favor of Hospital, -	$8,213 97

There are no debts for current expenses.

Of the above amount of what is due from private Patients, two large old debts are included, the collection of which is not yet certain. They amount to $3,254, 97.

In the matter of the suit of Dr. Foreman, the Superior Court of Baltimore city has given a decision against the Maryland Hospital, which renders the Corporation liable for about $900 00—unless the decision be reversed by the Court of Appeals.

Balance due to Hayward, Bartlett & Co. for the heating apparatus, see Report of the Executive Committee, p 5.

III.

Revenue proper of the year 1866 - - - -	$37,281 55
Expenditures of 1866, - - - - -	35,362 32
Excess of Revenue, - - - - -	$1,919 23