

a hearty welcome, not only from your own countrymen, but the people generally of Maryland, and that you will be met on the deck of the vessel should you come direct, or at the depot, should you land in New York and take the cars for Baltimore, and protected in all your rights by an officer appointed by the State of Maryland for that purpose.