

intersect any established road or way, the said President and Directors shall so construct the said road across such established road or way as not to impede the passage or transportation of persons or property along the same; and when it shall be necessary to pass through the lands of any individual, it shall also be their duty to provide for such individual proper wagon ways across said road or roads from one part of his land to the other.

Power to Purchase Machines, &c.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the said President and Directors shall have power to purchase with the funds of the company and place and use on any railroad constructed by them under this act, all machines, vehicles, or carriages of any description whatever which they may deem proper, for the purpose of transportation on the said road; and they shall have power to charge for tolls upon and the transportation of persons, goods, produce, merchandise, or property of any description transported by them on said railroad or railroads, any sum not exceeding eight cents per ton for both tolls and transportation for every mile the same may be transported, and for passengers not exceeding four cents per mile for each passenger. And it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, or for any corporate body to travel upon or use the roads of the said company, or to transport any persons, merchandise, or property of any description upon or along the road or roads of the said company without the license or permission of the President and Directors of said company.

Bells to be placed on Engines.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That a bell shall be placed on each locomotive engine, and rung at the distance of at least one hundred rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any travelled public road or street, and be kept ringing until it shall have crossed such road or street, or a steam whistle shall be attached to each locomotive engine, and to be sounded at least one hundred rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any such road or street, and shall be sounded at intervals until it shall have crossed such road or street, under the penalty of thirty dollars for the neglect of the provisions of this section, to be sued for before any justice of the peace of the election district or ward in which such neglect may happen, in ten days after such penalty was incurred, one-half thereof to go to the informer, and the other half to the county or city in which such neglect may happen; and the said company shall also be liable for all damages which shall be sustained by any person by reason of such neglect, and all penalties imposed by this act may be sued for in