

An Act further amendatory of the Act entitled "An Act to Incorporate the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Rail Road Company."

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad Company, be, and it is, hereby invested with all the rights, franchises, powers, privileges, authorities, immunities and advantages, for the surveying, locating establishing and constructing an extension of its present railroad, from its terminus at the mines, near the town of Frostburg, to such point, or points, in the valley of George's Creek, as lie north of the boundary line which separates the lands of the George's Creek Coal and Iron Company, from the lands known as the Aspinwall purchase, and for the using, preserving and controlling said present railroad and the extension thereof, hereinbefore provided for, and the necessary vehicles and appurtenances there-to belonging, and every part thereof, which by its original charter, and more especially the twelfth, thirteen, fourteenth and fifteenth sections thereof, were for the lawful purposes of said company, and the benefit of its corporators, given, granted, authorized and secured to the said company, and to the President and Directors respectively. And that the said company be, and it is hereby authorized and empowered, to have, hold, use, manage, work and control said road, and extension in the same way and with the same rights, powers and franchises, and subject to the same duties and restrictions, as if the same had been constructed under the original act, to which this is an amendment.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors of said company, or a majority of them, shall have power and authority to borrow money for the purpose of constructing such extension, and for equipping the same with motive power, cars, and all other working appurtenances, for the payment of the liabilities, and for the objects and purposes of said company, and to make and execute bonds and certificates of indebtedness, under the seal of said company, for such sum or sums, and payable at such time or times, and to sell or dispose of the same in such manner as to the said President and Directors, or a majority of them, may seem proper, and to pledge the entire road, including such extension, property and income of said company, to secure the payment thereof; Provided, nothing herein contained shall be taken to authorize the said company to issue anything in the nature of a bank note or other paper to be used or circulated as a currency.

Sec. 3. And it be enacted, That the said Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad Company, be, and it is hereby wholly relieved from any obligation to construct a railroad to the Pennsylvania line, and that the twentieth section of said original act imposing a forfeiture in relation thereto, be and the same is hereby repealed.
