quired to make
return.

sick or otherwise unable to attend, or should be absent, and therefore not to be found, it shall be the duty of the Sheriff forthwith to return the fact of such death, disability or absence, and the said Judge shall thereupon cause to be drawn from said box, in the manner hereinbefore directed, other names in the place and stead of the original drawing who may be dead, disabled or absent, and shall cause the name or names of such person or persons so as last aforesaid drawn, to be inserted in said venire facias to be summoned as aforesaid; and it shall be the duty of the Sheriff to summon the persons named in said venire facias, and make return thereof to said Court at the opening of its Session.

Judge to lock
or seal the box
and deposit the same with the Clerk.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That immediately after each drawing for Jurors as directed in the preceding Section and for talesmen as hereinafter directed, and without suffering the said ballots remaining in said box to be taken out, or in any manner removed therefrom, or inspected or examined, or the said box to be looked into, or removed from his presence by any person whatever, the said Judge of the said respective Courts shall close said box, and either lock or seal the same securely, and keeping the key or seal thereof himself, shall deposit the said box containing the remaining ballots, with the Clerk of the said Court, to be by him safely kept, free from any handling or interference by any person whatever, unless it be in the presence of the said Judge and by his direction, and then only in the manner herein directed; and if for the trial of any cause or causes, whether civil or criminal in the said Circuit Court, a talesman or talesmen be required, the Judge of the said Court may order the Sheriff to summon such talesman or talesmen either from a list of names that shall be drawn from the said box containing the said ballots in the mode and manner as directed in the third Section of this Act, and furnished to the said Sheriff, or from the community at large as heretofore practised.

Grand and Petit Jury.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That of the forty-eight Jurors drawn and summoned as in the third Section of this Act directed, the twenty-three names first occurring in
