

the order in which they were drawn, shall constitute and be the Grand Jury for the ensuing term of the said Court; and the remaining twenty-five names next in order in the drawing, shall constitute and be the Petit Jury of said ensuing term of said Court.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the name of no person disqualified or exempted by existing law from serving as Juror, or who, by existing law the Sheriff is forbidden to summon as such shall be selected and placed upon the panel or list from which the drawing is to be made as directed by this Act; nor shall any person be drawn and summoned to two Courts successively, and the said Court shall have full power and authority to coerce the attendance of Jurors drawn and summoned under this Act and to punish by fine or imprisonment or both, for any default or contempt committed in disregarding such summons.

Persons disqualified to act as Jurors.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That no terms of any of the Courts aforesaid shall be held until Juries therefor can be selected and summoned in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and in case the terms now fixed by law for holding the regular terms of any of said Courts shall arrive before Juries may be summoned in accordance with the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of the Judges of said Courts to discharge the Juries which may have been summoned by the Sheriffs of said Courts, or any of them, without reference to this Act, and to adjourn said term or terms for such time as may be requisite to enable Juries to be selected and summoned according to the provisions of this Act, and to direct a venire facias to issue for summoning the Jurors who may be selected for such adjourned term or terms according to this Act, and to fix the day on which said venire facias shall be returnable, and thereupon to proceed to hold said term or terms in the same manner and with the same effect as if the said term or terms had been held on the days now fixed by law, and the Grand and Petit Juries so to be selected and summoned, shall be taken to all intents and purposes to be the proper and lawful Grand and Petit Juries as fully as if the same had been selected and summoned

No Terms of Court to be held until Juries are summoned in accordance to the provisions of this Act.

Venire facias to be issued.