

a record of the persons voting and the persons voted for, and the persons having the highest number of votes for the several offices of Mayor and Common Council shall be declared duly elected.

Duty of the Judges and Clerks of Election.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That whenever an election shall be held under this charter it shall be the duty of the Judges and clerk or clerks of said election to notify the persons elected of their election, and the Mayor and City Council so elected shall severally hold their respective offices for the space and term of two years from the date of their qualification, and until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified; and that they shall not be entitled to any compensation for services rendered in the discharge of the duties imposed on them by this charter.

In case of failure to give notice.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That if notice of such election shall not be given as hereinbefore required, or if the Judges of Election shall not be appointed, or shall refuse to act, five or more voters of the said city may call an election for said officers by notices set up in the most public places in the said city, not less than one week previous to such election, therein naming the time and place of holding such election, and naming the Judges thereof, who, or any two of them, shall hold such election.

Provision in case of a tie, refusal to serve, or death.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That if at any election there shall be a tie between any persons voted for for the said office, or if any person elected to either of said offices shall refuse to act, die, resign, be disqualified, or remove, a new election shall be held in two weeks after such fact shall have become known, after at least one week's notice given by the Mayor, or one or more of the Councilmen, or five or more voters as directed in the preceding section; and such election shall be held by the Judges, or any two of them, appointed by the Mayor, or one or more of the Common Council, or five or more of the voters, as the case may be, and the person or persons elected shall serve until a new election.

Officers required to take an oath.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That all officers of said city shall, before they enter upon the duties