

thereof, and the owner of such swine, on reclaiming the same, shall pay at the rate of fifty cents per head for every twenty-four hours such swine may have been impounded; and any swine so impounded shall be advertised by notice in writing set up at two of the most public places in the district.

To be sold at public sale.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if any swine shall remain so impounded for five days after notice given as aforesaid, the party so impounding it may sell the same at public sale after two days' notice, as provided in the preceding section, for the payment of costs and expenses, including the said fifty cents per day.

Disputes — how decided.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That all disputes arising between the owner of any swine and the person impounding them, shall be determined by a Justice of the Peace for said county, who may summon witnesses and decide the matter in controversy.

Take effect.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after the first day of April next.

CHAPTER 88.

Passed Feb. 27, 1867. Entitled, AN ACT to incorporate the Tyson Mining Company.

Incorporated — power and privileges.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jesse Tyson, James W. Tyson, Richard W. Tyson, J. Chester Morris and Francis T. King, their successors and assigns, be and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate, under the name of the Tyson Mining Company, to have perpetual succession, to sue and be sued, to have, use and change at pleasure a common seal, and exercise generally all corporate privileges necessary in the mining and manufacturing of chrome, copper or other minerals, for which pur-