

Woolford, be and they are hereby constituted a body corporate and politic under the name and style of the Trustees of the Baptist Church at Jones' Mills in Dorchester county, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall be able and capable in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded to answer and be answered unto in any Court of this State, or before any Judge or Justice, to have a common seal, the same to alter or break at pleasure; and to have hold and enjoy and improve any and all Church property now held by them as a Congregation, or to be hereafter acquired by said Congregation under their corporate name, by gift, purchase, devise or bequest not to exceed in value the sum of ten thousand dollars.

Trustees to be elected.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the Congregation worshiping in said Church shall, according to such by-laws as they may adopt under this Act, elect from among themselves annually five persons as Trustees of said Church, and the Trustees so elected, shall serve for one year, and until their successors are elected. The same Trustees being eligible to re-election and the Trustees shall have power to fill all vacancies in their body which may occur during the year before the annual election by the Congregation.

In force.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 101.

Passed Mar. 7, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Boonsboro Cementery Association.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the officers of the German Reformed and Lutheran Churches of Boonsboro, Washington county Maryland, have formed themselves into an Association, purchased land and laid it out into suitable lots for a burial ground and elected officers for the Government of the Association; therefore.