Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 120.

AN ACT to repeal the Act of eighteen hundred and sixty-six, Chapter ninety-three, relating to a Patent for a tract of Land in Allegany County called "St. Barts." Passed Mar. 4, 1867.

WHEREAS it is represented to this General Assembly that Thomas Devecmon, late of Alegany county, deceased, procured on the fourteenth day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-three, a special warrant of Escheat to re-survey and effect a tract of Land called White Oak Bottom, lying in said Allegany county, and upon the fifth day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-three, surveyed the same and returned the certificate thereof to the Land Office, and compounded thereon, and Patent issued to him the twenty-fifth day of September, in the said year eighteen hundred and sixty-three, for said Land under the name of "Castleton;" and whereas, afterwards John A. Smith returned to the Land Preamble.
