

tained by any person by reason of such neglect, and all penalties imposed by this Act may be sued for in the name of the State, and if such penalty shall be for a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars then such suit may be brought before a Justice of the Peace and may be commenced by serving a summon on any director, agent or engineer of said company.

Rate of tolls
per ton.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That the company shall not be entitled to exact or receive any tolls exceeding the rate of five cents a ton per mile on all goods, merchandise or property of any description whatsoever transported on said railroad or any laterial way which they may construct and five cents per ton per mile for transportation, and also not exceeding four cents per mile for each passenger whom they may transport.

Dividends to be declared.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That the said President and Directors shall annually or semi-annually declare and make such dividends as they may deem proper of the net profits arising from the resources of the said company, after deducting the necessary current and probable contingent expenses, and they shall divide the same among the stockholders of the said company proportioned to their respective shares.

Penalty for damaging works.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully, by any means whatsoever, injure, impair or destroy any part of any railroad constructed by said company under this Act, or any of the necessary works, buildings, carriages, vehicle or machinery of said company, such person or persons so offending shall each of them for every such offence forfeit and pay to the said company a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, which may be recovered in the name of the said company by an action of debt before any Justice of the Peace, and also be subject to an indictment in the Circuit Court for the county where such offences may be committed, and upon conviction of such offence shall be punished by fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

When to be commenced
and finished.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That if this road or roads shall not be commenced in two years from the passage of this Act, and shall not be finished