

fifty dollars for any one offence, and shall stand committed to the public jail of the county or city till the fine and fees shall be paid.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 136.

AN ACT to incorporate the Maryland Metallic and Chemical Company of Baltimore City. Passed Mar. 20, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Nathan R. Smith, A. Snowden Piggot, Clarence Morfit, M. J. DeRosset, George L. Harrison, Richard S. Baker, John Wells Hanson, and their associates, successors and assigns, and all such persons and parties, companies or corporations as shall become stockholders in the Company hereby incorporated, shall be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of the Maryland Metallic and Chemical Company, and by said name and title shall have continuous succession, and a common seal, with power to alter the same at pleasure, and may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and defend and be answered and defended in all Courts of law and equity in the State and elsewhere, and shall be capable in law of purchasing, holding, improving and disposing of property, real, personal or mixed, and may receive and make all deeds, transfers, covenants, conveyances, grants, contracts, agreements and bargains whatsoever, necessary and deemed expedient or conducive to the profitable working of said Company in managing and developing their business in manufacturing Metals, Chemicals, Paints, Fertilizers and all and every article the said Company may be capable of producing or manufacturing at their works or elsewhere, and may do all and every other act or thing necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Act. Incorporated —power and privileges.