

dredge in taking or catching Oysters in any river, creek, cove, inlet, bay or sound within the limits of any county of this State, nor on any Oyster bed, bar or rock, on or about Tally's Point, Sandy Point, Hackett's Point, Thomas' Point, the Three Sisters, Holland's, Point Bar and Plum Point on the western side of the Chesapeak Bay, and any owner, master, employee or other person so offending, shall upon conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace or Judge of the Circuit Court for any county wherein the offence may have been committed, be subject to the same fine and penalties, and the boat or vessel so used or employed, be liable to seizure and forfeiture as provided in section five of this Article, but this section nor any in this Article shall be construed as a repeal of sections ninety-four to one hundred and one inclusive, of Article ninety of the Code of Public Local Laws for Somerset county, relating to Oysters.

Unlawful to catch oysters outside the county where licensed.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any person who may be licensed to take or catch Oysters with rakes or tongs in the waters of any county of this State, to take or catch Oysters in the waters of any other county than the one of which he is a resident and wherein the license may have been obtained, and any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace of the county wherein the offence may have been committed, be liable to the same fines and penalties as provided in section ten of this Article; provided, that when any river or creek is the dividing line between two counties, the bona fide residents of either of the said counties who may be licensed as aforesaid, shall use the same without incurring such fines and penalties; and provided, also that Fishing Bay in Dorchester county shall not be so used.

Proviso.

Property condemned to be sold by the Sheriff.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That all boats, vessels or other property condemned under the provisions of this Article shall be sold by the Sheriff of the county where such boat, vessel or other property may be condemned, at public sale, after giving twenty days notice of the time and place of such sale by advertisement in one or more news-