

papers published in the county where such condemnation may be made and by such other notice as he may deem expedient, to the highest bidder therefor for cash, and the proceeds of such sale or sales after deducting all the necessary and legal expenses of seizure, condemnation and sale, shall be divided as follows, to wit: one fourth to the officer making the seizure, one half of the balance to those aiding the officer to make such seizure, and the residue shall be paid to the State of Maryland.

Sec. 18. And be it enacted, That any party or parties against whom any Justice of the Peace may render a judgment under this Article, either to pay a fine or of condemnation of property, may at any time within ten days from the rendition of such judgment appeal from such judgment to the Circuit Court for any county wherein the same may have been rendered, but no execution or sale shall be stayed unless the party appealing shall give bond with surety to the State of Maryland in double the value of the property condemned, or of the fine imposed, as the case may be, with condition to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to pay the value of the property condemned and fine imposed, and all costs attending such proceedings, in case such judgment shall be confirmed, and in all cases of appeal either party shall be entitled to trial by jury.

Appeal provided for.

Sec. 19. And be it enacted, That whenever any offence is committed under any of the provisions of this Article, within the waters of the State but not within the limits of any county, then any Justice of the Peace, or the Circuit Court for any county, as the case may be, lying opposite and most convenient of access from the place where the offence may be committed, shall have jurisdiction thereof; and all proceedings, whether before a Justice of the Peace or before the Circuit Court for any county, shall be in the name of the State, and if the party or parties accused shall be acquitted, the Comptroller of the State shall pay the cost out of the fund created by this Article.

Offences outside limits of a county.

Sec. 20. And be it enacted, That any boat or vessel owned either wholly or in part by any non-resident of this State, which may be used or employed by any resident or non-resident of this

Vessels owned by non-residents.