

Proviso. the road progresses and not otherwise; provided, that the said company may use or hypothecate seventy-five thousand dollars of said bonds and no more, for the redemption of an equal amount of bonds now hypothecated, unless by the assent of the county and State Directors, said bonds when so redeemed to be held by said company subject to the provisions of this section.

In force. Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 192.

Passed Mar. 18, 1867. AN ACT to authorize and direct the County Commissioners of Somerset County, to levy a sum of money to build a bridge over the Eastern Branch of the Wicomico River, at Salisbury.

Authority to levy money for the purpose of building a bridge. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of Somerset County be, and they are hereby authorized and directed to levy a sum of money not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars on the assessable property of the said county, to erect a bridge over the East Branch of the Wicomico River, at Salisbury, at the place where the late bridge stood, known as Camden Bridge.

How bridge is to be built. Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said bridge shall be built upon an arch or truss constructed of wood and iron, without resting or posts, but resting on stone abutments.

Commissioners appointed. Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That Purnell Toadvine, John White and William S. Parsons be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to select a plan for said bridge, and to contract for and superintend the building of the same, subject to the ratification and approval of the said County Commissioners, when finished.