

company may charge for freight six cents per ton per mile, and for passengers five cents per mile for each passenger.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the said company may increase its capital stock to two hundred thousand dollars by additional subscriptions and may borrow money not exceeding fifty thousand dollars and mortgage their road to secure the same; the said company shall have full power to purchase and hold real estate for the use of the road or its works. Increase of Capital Stock.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That for the protection of life and property, the said company shall, and it is hereby made their duty to give proper signals before crossing any roads, and it shall use such necessary devices as now exist or hereafter may be discovered or invented for this purpose; and where it is needful shall station signal men to warn the public of the approach of or danger from trains, unless that end may be better attained in some other manner. Signals.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That there shall not be condemned for the actual bed or graded surface for cross trees and rails of said road, a greater width than sixty feet with proper addition for slopes, but that for stations, sidelings or turnouts or other erections, constructions, or structures immediately connected with the working of said road, at proper and necessary places only, such quantity of land as may be needed for such uses, unless agreement can be made with the owner, may be condemned as is hereinafter provided for. Width of road.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That of the sum of fifty-eight thousand dollars appropriated by the State of Maryland to the Elkton and Sassafras River Railroad Company by the Act of eighteen hundred and sixty, chapter, three hundred and three, twenty thousand dollars is hereby given, appropriated and bestowed to and upon the head of Sassafras, Warwick and Delaware Line Railroad, incorporated by this Act, and the General Assembly reserves the right to alter, amend or repeal this charter at pleasure. Appropriation.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.