From which it appeared that John A. J. Creswell, of Cecil county, received eight votes; that James T. Earle, of Queen Ann's county, received two votes; that Samuel Hambleton, of Talbot county, received three votes; that Richard B. Carmichael, of Queen Ann's county, received two votes; that Philip F. Thomas, of Talbot county received two votes; that William H. Neal, of Queen Ann's county, received one vote; that Christopher C. Cox, of Baltimore city, received one vote; that Henry H. Goldsborough, of Talbot county, received one vote; that E. F. Chambers, of Kent county, received one vote; that John W. Crisfield, of Somerset county, received one vote; and, that George R. Dennis, of Somerset county, received one vote.

So it appeared that no person had received a majority of all the votes cast in the Senate.

Mr. Maddox, from the Committee on Judicial Proceedings, reported without amendment, the bill entitled, an Act to repeal the seventy-fourth section of the thirty-fifth Article of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to the election of United States Senator, by inserting in 3d line after the word Senator, “the following words, ‘and to enact another provision in lieu thereof;’”

Mr. Ohr submitted the following amendment:

Section two, line third, strike out sixty and “insert ninety;”

Determined in the negative.
