

38. No person resident in the city of Baltimore and having a license to sell therein, shall suffer or permit any person not being a permanent resident of said city and not in his regular service or employ, or in the regular service or employ of his firm or copartnership, to sell any goods, wares or merchandise in any of the modes mentioned in the preceding section, under his name or the name of his firm or copartnership, or at the store, countingroom or warehouse in his occupation or in the occupation of his firm or copartnership or used as his place of business, or as the place of business of his firm or copartnership, without having first obtained a "Special License" so to do, which special license shall be in addition to the ordinary "Trader's License" of such person or firm as now required by law and shall license the person or firm obtaining the same to permit his or their regular consignors, their clerks or agents not being permanent residents of the city of Baltimore, and not in his regular service or employ, or in the regular service or employ of his firm or copartnership; to sell goods, wares, merchandise in any of the modes above described within the limits of the city of Baltimore.

Special License.

39. The license mentioned in the thirty-seventh section shall be issued to the person applying for the same on payment of the sum of three hundred dollars, and the special license mentioned in the thirty-eighth section shall be issued by the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore city to any person or firm permanently residing in said city and having a license to sell therein, upon the application of such person or firm, and upon payment by him or them of the same amount paid by such person or firm for his or their own ordinary "Trade License," and such special license shall expire on the first day of May next following the issue thereof.

Cost of License.

40. Any person offending against any of the preceding sections, and any person selling under the authority or permission of a person or firm resident in the city of Baltimore as provided in the thirty-eighth section, who shall sell otherwise than in accordance with such authority or permission, shall be liable to indictment, and upon

Penalty for violation.