

conviction shall be fined not less than three hundred dollars nor more than six hundred dollars for each offence, one-half to the informant, and shall be imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than six months.

In force. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be in force from its passage, but shall not be construed to affect the rights of any person who may have obtained a license to sell before the passage of this Act; and any person who before the adoption of this Act may have offended against any of the sections hereby repealed, shall remain liable to indictment, conviction and punishment in pursuance of the provisions of said sections as if the same had not been repealed.

Construed.

CHAPTER 253.

Passed Mar. 18, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Annapolis Fruit and Oyster Packing Company.

Incorporated. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William O. Sprigg of Allegany County, Charles F. Howes, Hammond Claude, Dennis Claude, R. Lamar Sprigg of Anne Arundel County, their associates, successors and assigns, be and they are hereby created a corporation and a body politic by the name and style of the Annapolis Fruit and Oyster Packing Company, and by that name may have perpetual succession, and shall be able and capable in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered in any Court of Law or Equity, and to make and use a common seal, and to do and perform all such other acts in relation to their business hereinafter declared and to establish such by-laws and regulations as shall be necessary for conducting their affairs not inconsistent with the laws of this State or the United States.