

to be a corporation or body corporate by the name and style of the Union Orphan Asylum of Baltimore for maintaining and educating children of deceased soldiers and sailors of the State of Maryland, and by that name they and their successors may at all times hereafter be capable in law to have, receive and retain to them and their successors property, real, personal and mixed, and also devises and bequests of any persons or bodies corporate; provided, that said corporation shall not at any time hold or possess property, real, personal or mixed, to exceed the value of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Proviso.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said corporation, by name and title aforesaid, shall be capable in law to sue and be sued in all or any Courts of Law or Equity.

May sue and be sued.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful at any time for the General Assembly to demand a statement of the property, real, personal and mixed, belonging to the said corporation and of the debts due to and from the said corporation, and the purposes for which disbursements shall have been made; and also have the right to authorize one or more persons to inspect such general accounts in the books of the corporation as shall relate to such statements.

General statement.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the funds and estate of the said corporation shall not any time be diverted from the purposes contemplated by its formation without the permission of the General Assembly of Maryland.

Funds not to be diverted.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That upon the adoption by the said corporation of this remodelled charter, the existing charter created by the ninth chapter of the laws, passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, of the General Assembly of Maryland, be, together with the Act itself, repealed, but without injury or prejudice to any acts done, or rights vested or intended to be vested under the charter so repealed, the intention of this reservation being to confirm to the said corporation any title to property which may have been transferred to or vested in it under the name of the Union Orphan Assylum of Baltimore city prior to the passage of this Act.

Existing charter repealed.
