

CHAPTER 261.

AN ACT for the relief of Nathaniel Duke, George W. Dowell, Thomas B. Billingsley and Richard Hance, administrators of William Billingsley. Passed Mar. 13, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Nathaniel Duke, George W. Dowell, Thomas B. Billingsley and Richard Hance, administrators of William Billingsley, be and they are hereby released from the payment of any and all interest due the State of Maryland, on a judgment recovered by said State in the Circuit Court for Calvert County in said State, at the May Term of said Court, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-six, against the said William Billingsley, Nathaniel Duke, George W. Dowell and Thomas B. Billingsley, for the sum of one thousand six hundred and forty-six dollars and two cents, with interest thereon from the twelfth day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-six, the same being the amount then due said State from said William Billingsley, a defaulting Collector of taxes for the Second Collection District of the County aforesaid, and for which the above mentioned judgment was recovered on the bond given by said William Billingsley with Nathaniel Duke, George W. Dowell and Thomas B. Billingsley, as securities thereon for the faithful performance of his duties as Collector aforesaid for the year eighteen hundred and fifty-one; provided, that the principal of the judgment aforesaid, shall be paid into the Treasury on or before the first day of April next. Relief granted.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Comptroller upon the payment of the principal due on the aforesaid judgment or claim, as hereinbefore provided, shall have the said judgment entered satisfied, and the account in the Comptrollers Office against the said William Billingsley, and for which the said judgment was recovered, shall be balanced, and entered adjusted. Proviso.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the day of its passage. Duty of Comptroller.

In force.
