Fines—how recovered.

Sec. 91. All fines, penalties, or forfeitures imposed by this Charter, or any ordinance of said town may be recovered in the name of the Mayor and Councilmen of said town, before any Justice of the Peace as small debts, and shall be paid to the Mayor and Councilmen for the use of the town.

Penalty for violations.

Sec. 92. No person shall drive any carriage, wagon or vehicle of any description, or ride any horse upon or over the paved footway of the said town, under the penalty of two dollars for every such offence; and any Constable or the Bailiff of said town, shall arrest any person so offending and take him before a Justice of the Peace, who upon proof of the offence, shall give judgment in the name of the State against the offender, upon which there shall be no supersedeas, and the fine shall be collected and paid to the Mayor and Councilmen for the use of said town; and the Bailiff shall have the same power and receive the same fees as Constables in Allegany county, for making arrests or serving any process for violation of the ordinances of said town.

May lay out, open and extend streets, &c.

Sec. 93. The Mayor and Councilmen shall have power to provide for laying out, opening and extending any street or alley within the town, which in their opinion, the public welfare or convenience may require, to provide for ascertaining whether any and what amount in value of damage will be caused thereby, for which the owner or possessor of any property through which such street or alley may pass, ought to be compensated, and for assessing and levying either generally or the whole assessable property within the town or specially on the property of persons benefitted, the whole or any part of the damages and expenses which will be incurred in laying out or extending such street or alley; for granting appeals to the Circuit Court for Allegany county, from the decisions of any Commissioners or other persons appointed in virtue of any ordinance to ascertain the damages occasioned by the opening or extending of such street or alley, and for securing to the person injured, the right on application within thirty days from
