

in the same so valued, and such condemnation and valuation when paid or tendered to the owner or owners, shall vest in the United States the estate and interest in the same thus valued as fully as if it had been legally conveyed by the owner thereof, and if the valuation shall not be accepted when tendered, it may be received at any time thereafter; and all the expenses shall be paid by the United States.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said sheriff, in execution of such warrant or warrants, may adjourn from time to time until the same shall be completed. May adjourn from time to time.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That all the provisions of the Act of the January session, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, chapter sixty-eight, relating to the cession of concurrent jurisdiction to the United States over the lands in the city of Annapolis therein described, whenever the same should be conveyed to the United States, by deed duly executed, and exempting from taxation property therein described, shall extend and apply to any lands within the said city, or Anne Arundel county, duly conveyed by deed or condemned to the United States by virtue of the provisions of this Act. Provisions applicable.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.

---

CHAPTER 295.

AN ACT entitled, an Act to prevent interruption of navigation of the Little Annessex River in Somerset county. Passed Mar. 12, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful to throw or put into the navigable waters of the Little Annessex River any stone, earth, shells, timber or Declared unlawful.