

cause to be made proper and convenient ways for said road to cross.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That if said company shall neglect to provide wagon ways as required and provided by the sixteenth section of this Act, it shall be lawful for any individual to sue said company and be entitled to such damages as a jury may think him or her entitled to for such neglect or refusal on the part of said company.

Lawful to sue Company.

Sec. 18. And be it enacted, That the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad shall be deemed and is hereby declared a public highway, subject to the imposition of tolls to be hereafter regulated by this Act.

Public highway.

Sec. 19. And be it enacted, That said company shall start and run their cars for the transportation of passengers and property at regular times, to be fixed by public notice, and shall furnish sufficient accommodation for the transportation of all such persons and property as shall within a reasonable time previous thereto be offered for transportation at the place of starting and at usual stopping places established for receiving and discharging way passengers and freight for that train, and shall take transportation and discharge such persons and property at, from and to such places, on the due payment of the fare or freight legally authorized therefor, and shall be liable to the party aggrieved in an action of damages for neglect or refusal in the premises.

Required to start and run cars at regular times.

Sec. 20. And be it enacted, That a bell shall be placed on each locomotive engine and rung at the distance of at least one hundred rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any public road or street, and be kept ringing until it shall have crossed such road or street; or a steam whistle which shall be attached to each locomotive engine and be sounded at least one hundred rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any such road or street, except in cities, and be sounded at intervals until it shall have crossed such road or street, under the penalty of thirty dollars for the neglect of the provisions of this section, to be sued for before any Justice of the peace in the district in which such neglect may happen in ten

Bell to be placed on Engine, &c.