

so elected shall hold their office until their successors shall be elected, and on the assembling of the said first general meeting of the said stockholders, the power given to the Directors in the fourth section of this act to make, amend and repeal by-laws shall cease, and the said stockholders at their said meeting, and at all succeeding annual meetings shall have power to make such by-laws for the government of said corporation not inconsistent with this Act or the laws of this State, and the same to amend and repeal as a majority in value of said stockholders may determine; and in the election of Directors, and the making, amending and repealing of by-laws, every stockholder shall have one vote for every share of stock he she or they may own, and may vote the same in person or by proxy.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as granting banking privileges to said corporation, and the General Assembly reserves the right to alter, amend or repeal this act of incorporation at pleasure. No banking privileges.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.

---

CHAPTER 302.

AN ACT making appropriations for the support of the Government for the year ending on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight. Passed Mar. 22, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That for the expenditures in the support of the Government, for the year ending on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, the following sums of money, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated, that is to say: Appropriation.