

clared a public highway subject to the imposition of tolls to be hereafter regulated by this Act.

Sec. 19. And be it enacted, That the said company shall start and run their cars for the transportation of passengers and property at regular times, to be fixed by public notice, and shall furnish sufficient accommodation for the transportation of all such persons and property as shall, within a reasonable time previous thereto, be offered for transportation at the place of starting, and at usual stopping places established for receiving and discharging way-passengers and freight for that train, and shall take transportation and discharge such persons and property at, from and to such places on the due payment of the fare — freight legally authorized therefor, and shall be liable to the party aggrieved in an action of damages for neglect, or refusal in the premises. Penalty for neglect.

Sec. 20. And be it enacted, That a bell shall be placed on each locomotive engine, and rung at the distance of at least one hundred rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any public road or street, or a steam whistle which shall be attached to each locomotive engine, and be sounded at least one hundred rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any such road or street, except in Cities, and be sounded at intervals until it shall have crossed such road or street, under the penalty of thirty dollars for the neglect of the provisions of this Section, to be sued for before any Justice of the Peace in the District in which such neglect may happen in ten days after such penalty was incurred, one half thereof to go to the informer, and the other half to the County in which such neglect occurred, and the said Company shall be also liable for all damages which may be sustained by any persons by reason of such neglect, and all penalties imposed by this Act may be sued for in the name of the State, and if such penalty shall be for a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, then such suit may be brought before a Justice of the Peace, and may be commenced by serving a summons on any director or agent of said Railroad Corporation. Signals.

Sec. 21. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall not be entitled to exact or receive any Rates of toll,