

P. Williamson, Trustees of Middletown Academy, if in their judgment and opinion, the public interest would not be injured thereby, are hereby directed and empowered to transfer by deed with such reservation as in their judgment and opinion the public interest requires, the building and grounds held in trust by them, to the Board of School Commissioners, of Frederick county.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 313.

AN ACT to incorporate the Big Hunting Creek Mining and Iron Manufacturing Company, of Frederick county. Passed Mar. 11, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John B. Kenkel, Joshua Biggs, George W. Foreman, Samuel Keefer, John Rouzer, Joseph Wilhide and William C. Landers, and such other persons as with them or in their place, shall become Stockholders in said Corporation, their successors and assigns be and they are hereby created a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of the Big Hunting Creek Mining and Iron Manufacturing Company, of Frederick county, and in that name shall have succession, may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and defend in any Court of law or equity, and may ordain and establish such by-laws, rules and regulations so shall appear necessary for conducting the concerns of such Corporation, not contrary to the laws of this State or of the United States, and the same to change, alter and amend as they may deem proper, and may have and use a common seal, and generally may do any act or thing necessary or proper to carry into effect the provisions of this Act, and to promote the designs of the Corporation. Incorporated.