

said Turnpike Company shall have power to construct bridges over streams, and may agree with owners of lands for the purchase of land and materials for the use of said turnpike, and when necessary by giving twenty days notice to the interested parties may apply to a Justice of the Peace of said County, who shall issue a warrant to the Sheriff of the County, to summon twenty disinterested persons to meet upon said lands, and after the striking off four such jurors by the Company, and four by the opposing party, the remaining twelve on oath or affirmation shall value the damages upon a fair estimate of the advantage and disadvantage to the owners of lands, and in writing shall deliver their verdict to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County to be recorded, either party having a right of appeal to the Circuit Court, and the amount of damages to be paid by said Turnpike Company to those for whose benefit such damages are assessed, provided however, said Company shall have the right to enter upon any lands for survey preliminary to condemnation for such service as described, the Justice, Sheriff, Clerk and Jurors shall be entitled to receive the usual fees in such cases.

Tolls.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That as said road is finished and opened for travel, the said Company shall be authorized to erect one or more toll-gates thereon, and to charge and receive tolls at such rates, terms and conditions and limitations as are prescribed to the Baltimore and York Road Turnpike Company by their charter and supplements thereto.

‡ In force.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage, and the General Assembly reserves to itself the right to alter, amend or repeal this act at pleasure.