

such by-laws shall not be contrary to any law of this State or of the United States.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That every person or persons who shall be a weekly depositor of said Corporation, and who shall have deposited not less than one dollar for each week for the period of ten weeks, shall thereby become a member of said Corporation, and shall have a right to require and receive from the President thereof, or other officer in their behalf, by the by-laws appointed and designated, a certificate of membership, and the person so becoming a member, shall so long as his said amount of deposit shall remain with the said Corporation be entitled to all the rights and privileges belonging to a member of said Corporation under the provisions of this Act, and under any by-laws of the said Corporation, and the regular weekly deposits of any members of said Corporation shall in no case exceed the sum of ten dollars for any one week, and the whole amount of such deposits of any such member shall in no case exceed the sum of five thousand dollars, and it is hereby provided that nothing in this Act contained shall be so construed as to confer authority on the Directors or Stockholders by any rule or by-law to restrict or limit the number of weekly depositors who may desire to deposit or become members of said Corporation; provided, however, that the amount paid in by each depositor be not less than one dollar per week, and that they in all things comply with the provisions of this Act, and the rules and by-laws which may from time to time be adopted.

Who shall be members

Proviso.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall be capable to receive from any person or persons any deposit or deposits of money; and to use all moneys so received in discounting notes, &c., or to invest the same in public stock or other securities at the discretion of the Directors, according to the by-laws, and in such manner as they deem most safe and beneficial, and the said corporation shall be capable of receiving from any person or persons any transient deposit or deposits of money, which said deposit or deposits shall be subject to the checks from time to time of the person or persons making the same; provided, that

Discounts and investment.

Proviso.