BY THE SENATE,

March 11, 1867.

We propose, with the concurrence of your honorable body, the appointment of a joint committee of five, two on the part of the Senate and three on the part of the House, who shall proceed to Washington city and urge before the appropriate committee of Congress of the United States the appropriation of twelve millions of dollars, or such larger amount as may be thought necessary, which shall be loaned to the people of the South who may require assistance, to enable them to cultivate their crops, and thus afford permanent relief to her inhabitants.

We have appointed on the part of the Senate Messrs. Earle and Billingslea.

By order,

A. GASSAWAY,
Secretary.
