Said bill was then returned to the House of Delegates.

The hour of 12 o'clock M., having arrived, the Senators proceeded to the Hall of the House of Delegates for the purpose of convening in Joint Assembly with that Body for the election of a United States Senator.

When the Secretary of the Senate proceeded to read the action of the Senate upon the question of the election of United States Senator on yesterday, after which, the Clerk of the House of Delegates read the proceedings of that Body upon the same subject, from which it appeared that the Hon. Philip Francis Thomas had received a majority of all the votes cast.

The Speaker of the House of Delegates then declared the Hon. Philip Francis Thomas, elected a Senator from the State of Maryland, to the Congress of the United States, for the term of six years from the 4th day of March, 1867.

The Senators then returned to the Senate Chamber and resumed the consideration of the legislative business.
