SATURDAY, March 16, 1867.

The President laid before the Senate the following communication from William J. Leonard, Esq., State Comptroller:

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE.

ANNAPOLIS, March, 16, 1867.

Honorable C. C. Cox,

President of the Senate:

SIR:—In obedience to an order passed by the Senate on the 15th inst., requesting me to inform your Honorable Body, how many of the members and officers of the extra session of 1861, held at Frederick city, have been paid under the law passed at this session, and how much each has received, I have the honor to enclose herewith, a statement showing the amount paid to have been five thousand four hundred and ninety eight dollars ($5,498.) Also, showing to whom paid and how much each has received. All of which is respectfully submitted,

WM. J. LEONARD,
Comptroller.
