The bill entitled, an Act supplementary to Acts of February 3, 1865, chapter 33, and March 14, 1865, chapter 106, relating to the payment of Bounties to the heirs of deceased soldiers;

Was, on motion by Mr. Davis, of Washington,

Ordered to lie over.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, March 20th, 1867.

On motion by Mr. Henkle,

Ordered, That the Chairman of the Committee on Claims, issue his certificate to Benjamin Hopkins, for eighteen days per diem, for services rendered as messenger and porter to the Senate.

Which was read and adopted.

Mr. Jump submitted the following :

Whereas, The Legislature at this session of 1867, has passed a law authorizing the Comptroller of the Treasury to issue his warrant upon the Treasurer, for the sum of four hundred dollars in favor of Luther H. Gadd, for services rendered ; and

Whereas, The said Comptroller refused to issue his warrant upon the Treasurer for the amount so passed by the Act of Assembly ; therefore,

Be it Ordered by the Senate of Maryland, that William J. Leonard, Comptroller of the Treasury, communicate immediately the reasons why he refuses to obey the behest of the Legislature ; and be it Further Ordered, That the Secretary send immediately a copy to said Comptroller.

Which was read and adopted.
