Mr. Earle submitted the following message:

BY THE SENATE,

March 22, 1867.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message declining to concur in the Senate amendments to the Militia bill, and would inform you that the Senate insists on its amendments. We propose, with the concurrence of your Honorable Body, the appointment of a Committee of Conference of one on the part of the Senate and two on the part of the House, as the readiest mode of securing the consummation of the bill. We have named on the part of the Senate, Mr. Earle.

By order,

A. GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

The question then recurred upon the adoption of the message,

And it was determined in the affirmative.

The message was then sent to the House of Delegates.

The bill entitled, an Act to incorporate the Baltimore Marine Sectional Dock Company;

Being under consideration,

The Committee on Corporations submitted the following amendments:
