NEGATIVE—None.

Mr. Vickers, from the Committee of Conference on the appropriation bill for 1868, submitted the following amendments :

The Committee of Conference to which was referred the General Appropriation Bill for 1868, beg leave to report that they recommend that the House agree to the first amendment proposed by the Senate. In the second amendment proposed by the Senate insert in lieu thereof the following : "To the Assistant Librarian four hundred dollars in addition to the $600 now allowed out of the Contingent Fund for the Library."

The committee recommend in lieu of the 6th amendment proposed by the Senate, on page 4, line 2, inserting the words "for contingent fund for Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Delegates, to defray their expenses while acting as members of the State Board of Education, one thousand dollars. In lieu of the 7th amendment proposed by the Senate on page 4, line 10, strike out the word "two," and insert the word "four."

The committee recommend that the Senate recede from the 8th amendment proposed by them. The House agrees to the Senate's 9th and 10th amendments, and recommend their adoption. The committee recommend that the Senate recede from the 11th amendment in lieu of the 13th amendment proposed by the Senate, the committee recommend that the words "one thousand," on page six, and in line 10, be stricken out and eight hundred be inserted.

GEORGE VICKERS,
J. TOME,
BARNES COMPTON,
