

Nov. 26, 1866.—John D. Truitt, Justice of the Peace 5th District, vice L. J. Cathell, declined.

Also the following named Commissioners of Deeds of the State of Maryland, to reside in other States :

April 14, 1866.—Warner Jackson, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, vice Wm. H. Bird, resigned.

April 14, 1866.—Horatio C. King, at New York city, vice F. B. Candler, resigned.

May 16, 1866.—J. B. T. Tupper, at New York city, vice Daniel Seixas, declined.

May 16, 1866.—Samuel Jennison, at Boston, Massachusetts, vice Joseph L. Lord, resigned.

THOMAS SWANN.

On motion by Mr. Tome,

The foregoing nominations were referred to the Committee on Executive nominations.

Mr. Bowie, from the Committee on Executive nominations, submitted the following report :

The Committee on Executive nominations report favorably on all the accompanying nominations, except that of David H. Straughn, as Notary Public at Snow Hill, on which they report adversely, and also advise that the nominations of Wm. W. Davis, of Caroline county, as Justice of the Peace, and of Simeon N. Ward, of Caroline county, as Notary Public, at Greensborough, be held under advisement.

On motion by Mr. Stephenson,

The report was laid over informally.

On motion by Mr. Frazier,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Legislative business.

---

THURSDAY, January 31, 1867.

The following communication, which had been received from His Excellency, Governor Swann, was read :