

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Billingslea,	Kimmel,
Brodwater,	Mackall,
Compton,	Maddox,
Davis, of Caroline,	Mules,
Davis, of Washington,	Philpot,
Earle,	Stirling,
Frazier,	Tome,
Henkle,	Trail,
Holton,	Waters,
Jump,	Young—20.

On motion by Mr. Bowie,

The following nominations were ordered to lie over :

James Fuller, as Inspector General of Flour.

Basil D. Sollers, as Inspector of Fire Wood in Baltimore city.

Dr. Judson Gilman, as Inspector of Guano in Baltimore city.

J. Nelson Foster, as State Wharfinger in Baltimore city.

John W. Horn, as Warden of the Maryland Penitentiary.

John Hurst, John Coates, George R. Berry, Joshua, Vansant, John T. Ford and Wm. Devries, as Directors of the Maryland Penitentiary.

Wm. McPhail and T. Frank Brown, as Notaries Public in Baltimore city.

On motion by Mr. Tome,

The Senate resumed the consideration of the Legislative business.

MONDAY, March 18, 1867.

On motion by Mr. Bowie,

The Senate advised and consented to the nomination of James Fuller as Inspector General of Flour.

On motion by Mr. Bowie,

The Senate advised and consented to the nomination of David Roop, of Carroll county, as Assistant Inspector of Flour.