

MEMORIALS—

From Col. P. B. Stilson and 70 citizens of Prince George's, Anne Arundel, Howard and Montgomery counties, against any change in the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 202.

From Walter S. Travers and 88 citizens of Baltimore, against any change in the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 203.

From James P. Poulton and others of Baltimore, against any change in the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 203.

From Stephen B. Heath, Jr., Richard Contec, and sundry ladies of Prince George's county, against any change in the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 203.

From Joseph J. Duvall, in favor of a law regulating the sale of agricultural products, 216.

From Perkins & Co., and other mercantile firms and large property owners of Baltimore, against any change in the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 216.

From 200 citizens of Prince George's, Montgomery, Anne Arundel and Howard counties, praying some action towards repairing the Baltimore and Washington turnpike, 226.

From 130 operatives in the Laurel Factory, to re-enact a law making ten hours the day's labor, 226.

From 74 merchants and citizens of Baltimore, to repeal the obnoxious Sunday Law, 226.

From Francis W. Weems, J. H. Reeder, William H. Higgs and 73 other citizens of Charles county, against any change in the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 243.

From John W. Jenkins, Pearson Chapman, Edgar Brown and 53 other citizens of Charles county, representing 20,000 acres of land, against any change in the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 243.

From John G. Hewes, McHenry & Co., and 50 merchants and citizens of Baltimore, against any change in the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 244.